THE FRAME UP CAUSES A STIR

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Charges that the defense in the murder trial of Thomas J. Mooney is heading a conspiracy to day can be handled in this way, but The material for the road construcdiscredit the state's case against Mooney and others indicted with it is the beginning and in the mean. tion is delivered, and there can be no him in connection with a bomb explosion here July 22, 1916, which cost ten lives, are made here by District Attorney Charles M.

Fickert declares that he will ask the county grand jury to investigate the circumstances surrounding the sending through the mails of three pamphlets entitled "The Frame-Up System" to a juror and two talesmen. He also made public a letter received by a prospective juror which was typewritten on International Workers' Defense league stationery, containing the 200 names of the first jury panel called in the trial, together with instructions that full information should be obtained on the history of each man. The There seems little possibility that a letter was unsigned.

One paragraph of the letter, which was emphasized by Fickert, Mexico will be included in the new said that "Billings was the victim of a gross misearringe of justice, due to corrupt jurors." "The Frame-Up System," edited by Robert advisability of prohibiting the sale of Minor, treasurer of the International Workers' Defense league, intoxicants and prohibiting gambling charges that the state's prosecutors "framed up" evidence on which was considered in connection with Warren K. Billings was sentenced to life imprisonment on a charge article 4, which declares that no perof murder growing out of the explosion.

W. Bourke Cockran, leading Mooney's defense, met Fickert's which does not offend against the charges with the counter charge that "he believed the district laws or society. The article, howattorney's office was responsible for sending the pamphlets and ever, was reported from committee the letter to members and prospective members of the jury."

Another special venire of 50 was exhausted yesterday, with a net result of two talesmen passed subject to peremptory challenge.

Snake's Method of Attack. No snake is able to jump or spring from a coil in order to strike, as often represented in pictures. It can only strike when it resembles the letter S and is lying flat on the ground. It can then only reach the distance supplied by stretching the body out straight. The two curves in the letter 8 supply this distance, which is about half the length of the body. No snake jumps through the air to its victim or springs clear from the ground, rising upon its tail. Such stories and pictures are all false. Neither do they coll like a rope and strike from that position. They may coil partially, but the part of the body that does the striking is ever and only that part which makes the letter S and lies flat on the ground; hence no serpent can strike when stretened out
